[Online Review] { - END TRANSMISSION - }Winner of Champion's League, two trophy: Incoming coach commits to return to Racing Club Paris: Former Brazil coach Luiz Felipe Scolari is set to bring his coaching expertise to one of France's most successful football clubs. Felipo is due to sign a three-year deal with French champion Racing Club de Strasbourg, where he will serve as the team's sporting director. The move was confirmed in Paris on Tuesday. A ceremony will be held in Paris on Wednesday to officially sign the agreement between Felipo's PDM agency and the Rhineland club, which is owned by the Russian billionaire Gennady Timchenko. Wearing a suit, the 55-year-old Felipo did not comment and smiled as he left the meeting with Sporting Director Jean-Louis Gasset. Felipo (right) will take up the reins at Racing Club on July 10. (Photo: AFP) Scolari, who has masterminded three wins in the Brazilian World Cup finals in 2002, 2006 and 2014, will be the first in a series of high-profile coaching hires. The former Brazil manager replaces outgoing Luis Fernandez, who stepped down in May. The German sporting director had been in charge of the highly successful Basler Lions for almost four years before moving to the Racing Club. Felipo's PDM agency said the FIFA World Cup winner, who won the Brazilian league and the Copa Libertadores twice, is joining Racing Club "with the objective of continuing" his career. "He is happy to be there and ready to work, according to the project presented to us," the company statement said. "He is glad to return to the club where he played in the early years of his career." A passionate football lover, Felipo kept his two yellow shirts in his home and always wanted to return home, he said. Scolari, who has been undergoing a lengthy European ban for attempting to stage a betting scam against Brazil in 1997, began his managerial career in 1969 at Atletico Mineiro, then part of Brazil's former biggest league. He led the national team to World Cup glory in 2002, when it won the first of his three titles at the helm. bff6bb2d33
